

Trees are one of our biggest nature allies in the fight against climate change. They clean the air and water, improve soil health and provide home to thousands of species.

Despite their importance, just 13% of the UK's total has tree cover. However, in Spain it's 36% - so many more trees than the UK!!!

Enter tree art competition

The winner will receive a Friends of the Earth t-shirt

Share your entry with #MORETREESINUK by 12th May 2020'

